Name: Waynette Arnum

College: Capital Community College

Office sought: Membership

Email: warnum@capitalcc.edu

Statement: (no more than 100 words. Longer statements will be cut at 100th word.)

I am looking to become the 4c's membership officer to keep our union strong, honest and transparent so that our brothers and sisters feel good about joining the 4c's. As the membership officer I would make sure that all our members have a voice in helping shape the future of the 4c's. I will work in conjunction with all 4c's statewide officers to achieve the goals set forth to making our union the one that every union member would be proud to be a part of.

Education:

B.A. Pennsylvania State University

Professional Experience and Activities:

I am the Assistant Registrar at Capital Community College and I have worked at representing our union and our members for over 15 years as the chapter grievance officer. I help to facilitate and run the monthly CCC chapter meetings where I update our members on the Delegate Assembly meetings for which I am also a delegate.

4C's Activities:

I attended the National Labor College on two separate occasions to take courses in Arbitration and Grievance procedures. I also attended the annual SEIU/AFRAM in Detroit, MI. I have attended the 4c's membership conferences.
